The Message Of Easter

“Faith in the resurrection of Jesus says that there is a future for every human being; the cry for unending life which is a part of the person is indeed answered. Through Jesus we do know ‘the room where exiled love lays down its victory.’ He himself is this place, and he calls us to be with him and in dependence on him. He calls us to keep this place open within the world so that he, the exiled love, may reappear over and over in the world... God exists: that is the real message of Easter. Anyone who even begins to grasp what this means also knows what it means to be redeemed.”

—Pope Benedict XVI

Good Shepherd Catholic Radio

Jackson Lansing Catholic Radio is pleased to announce that it has taken on a new identity as Good Shepherd Catholic Radio and that an agreement to purchase a local FM station has been submitted to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

Catholic radio has proven to be one of the most effective means of the mission of evangelization. Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd said, “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep” (John 10:11). So what greater name could this new radio station have but that of the Good Shepherd? In this age of relativism and secularism, the guidance of our Good Shepherd through Catholic radio is needed now more than ever.

Spreading the truths of the Catholic faith is vitally important. This was the last command Jesus gave before ascending into heaven: “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation” (Mark 16:15). Catholic radio provides an outstanding means of doing this because it reaches so many people so effectively.

Radio!!

Quotes

For her part, the Church in the United States is called, in season and out of season, to proclaim a Gospel that not only proposes unchanging moral truths, but also proposes them precisely as the key to human happiness and social prospering (cf. Gaudium et Spes, 10). To the extent that some cultural trends contain elements that would curtail the proclamation of these truths, whether constricting it within the limits of a merely scientific rationality or suppressing it in the name political power or majority rule., they represent a threat not just to Christian faith, but also to humanity itself and to the deepest truth about our being and ultimate vocation, our relationship to God. Pope Benedict XVI – Jan. 19, 2012

We cannot encounter Christ and not want to make Him known to others. So do not keep Christ to yourselves! Share with others the joy of your faith. The world needs the witness of your faith; it surely needs God. Pope Benedict XVI – Aug. 2010

We deem it opportune to remind our children of their duty to take an active part in public life and to contribute toward the attainment of the common good of the entire human family as well as to that of their own political community... Every believer in this world of ours must be a spark of light, a center of love, a vivifying leaven amidst his fellow men. And he will be this all the more perfectly, the more closely he lives in communion with God in the intimacy of his own soul. Blessed Pope John XXIII, Peace on Earth

About that Catholic Radio Association Logo

The Catholic Radio Association (CRA) is committed to spreading the Catholic Faith through the medium of Catholic radio. The mission of the CRA is to help draw people to Jesus Christ and his holy Church through expediting the establishment of, guiding the operation of, and offering critical services to Catholic radio stations. The Catholic Radio Association seeks to bring together Catholic radio apostolates, program providers, and the hierarchy of the Catholic Church, in order that this means of social communication, be used effectively and in obedience to the decrees of the Second Vatican Council and the Magisterium of the Church.

As a trade association, the CRA works to advance the cause of Catholic radio by providing member services, facilitating the sharing of knowledge and resources, and speaking with one voice for its members. The Association's membership includes virtually all Catholic radio apostolates in the country, program providers, and several (arch) dioceses. Over the past 10 years the Association has helped Catholic radio grow at an average rate of one new station per month.
