A New Member of the Board of Directors

Good Shepherd Catholic Radio would like to welcome Bob Look as a new member of the Board of Directors. Originally from Grosse Pointe, Bob now lives on Lake Somerset in Hillsdale and is a member of St. Rita Catholic Church in Clarklake.

Bob brings a great deal of business and technical experience to his new position. He is a 1982 graduate of Lawrence Technological University in Southfield and has been employed at Consumers Energy in Jackson since his graduation. Currently, Bob manages all computer data centers and voice communications systems for Consumers Energy. He is a licensed amateur radio operator.

All of us at GSCR are looking forward to working with Bob to ensure that GSCR will continue to provide the Catholic programs our listeners have come to expect throughout the year. Welcome aboard, Bob!

Doug Shumard, founder of GSCR, will be semi-retired as President Emeritus.

Another Successful Annual Mailing Appeal

Good Shepherd Catholic Radio Mission Statement

This apostolate intends to operate one or more stations to broadcast Catholic religious and educational programs aimed at upholding and strengthening the Catholic faith, originate local programming focusing on local Catholic events, broadcast Catholic news of local, national, and international significance, and assist the Diocese of Lansing, parish schools, and Catholic organizations with public service announcements both on the air and on our website.

The Importance of Good Shepherd Catholic Radio

You're no doubt aware of how BIG MEDIA is trying to silence every voice that objects to the secularist "progressive" agenda.

Major networks, publications, and websites have been in political lockstep for years. But now Facebook, Twitter, and other social networks have limited the range of ideas they'll allow to be discussed online.

Worse yet, Google, Amazon, Apple, and other digital giants are blocking access to the Internet by companies struggling to provide free-speech alternatives.

Catholic Radio has never been more important than it is at this critical time. We're one of the few sources of insight, balance, clarity — even just plain common sense. That's because we're committed to the Christian ideals of human dignity and personal freedom highlighted by St. Paul in his Letter to the Galatians:

"Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has set us free, and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery."

Good Shepherd Catholic Radio is the voice of truth and reason on the airwaves of Jackson and South-Central Michigan. Conditions in our country right now have heightened the urgency of our mission to provide accurate information untainted by anti-Christian bias.

And what a marvelous evangelistic opportunity this has become. Even people who normally wouldn't be drawn to religious broadcasting are tuning us in, because they know they can trust us. This gives us a chance to carry the Word of God and the teaching of His Church to more and more listeners all the time.

Your generosity makes this vital work possible. Please give prayerful consideration to increasing your support of Good Shepherd Catholic Radio. Then go online to make a tax-deductible contribution today at:

May God bless you for helping us at this unique moment of need and opportunity.

And may He bless our nation.
